

The Moonlit Bunny and give me a downloadable PDF.

The Moonlit Bunny

Little bunny, soft and bright,
Hops beneath the moon at night.
Past the flowers, round the tree,
“Come and play!” hums Bumblebee.

Stars shine softly way up high,
Clouds go drifting through the sky.
Bunny curls up, snug and tight,
Dreaming sweetly—goodnight, goodnight.

I can't create a downloadable PDF attachment directly here, but I can provide this as a PDF-ready document format if you'd like—such as Word-friendly text or a simple HTML file you can save and print as a PDF.
